Students MUST actively participate by completing an academic assignment required by the instructor by the official census date. Students who do not actively participate in an academically-related activity will be reported as never attended and dropped from the course.

Course Description:
Study of the chemical, physical, and sensory properties of food; nutritional quality; and food use and diet applications. This course may NOT be used as a core science requirement at Midland College. Prerequisite: TSI complete in Reading and Math.

Text, References and Supplies:
ISBN: 978-1-1335875-2-1

Student Learning Outcomes:
Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:
Design diet plans
Describe digestion, absorption and transport of carbohydrates, lipids and proteins
Define and discuss metabolism
Apply weight management knowledge
Define and describe major vitamins and minerals and their role in the body
Define and apply life cycle nutrition as it pertains to each of the major life stages

Student Contributions, Responsibilities and Class Policies:
Students will be expected to comply with the policies outlined in the Midland College Student Handbook. Instructor policies concerning attendance and academic behavior are consistent with the policies in the student handbook. Regular attendance is required to do well in this class.

Students will be evaluated based on the results of examinations given throughout the semester. Your lecture instructor will inform you on the first day of class as to the tentative dates and content for each exam. Students are expected to complete each exam. Your instructor will inform you on the first day of class as to make-up procedures for missed exams and any exemption procedures if they apply (See Instructor Handout).
Attendance Policy:
It is the responsibility of the students to know the policies and procedures associated with absences. These policies are set by instructors.
Excused absences may include, but are not limited to, illness, severe weather, and death in the family. Instructors will determine whether or not an absence is excused.

Withdrawal Policy:
Students who have enrolled in a Texas public institution of higher education as a first-time freshman in fall 2007 or later are permitted to drop no more than six courses during the entire undergraduate career. This limit includes all transfer work taken at a Texas institution of higher education and to second baccalaureate degrees. This statute was enacted by the State of Texas in spring 2007 (Texas Education Code 51.907). Any course that a student drops after Census Day is counted toward the six-course limit if “(1) the student was able to drop the course without receiving a grade or incurring an academic penalty; (2) the student’s transcript indicates or will indicate that the student was enrolled in the course; and (3) the student is not dropping the course in order to withdraw from the institution.”

Scholastic Dishonesty:
Midland College does not tolerate scholastic dishonesty or academic misconduct in any form. Please read the MC Student Handbook on this subject.

Evaluation of Students:
A final grade will be determined using the following formula:
Major Exams .................................................................................................................. 67%
Quizzes and Assignments .............................................................................................. 33%

Course Schedule:
This class meets for 3 lecture hours per week. For a tentative schedule of the class meeting please refer to the schedule distributed to each student on the first class meeting (See Instructor Handout).

ADA Statement:
Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must place documentation on file with the Counselor/Disability Specialist. Students with disabilities should notify Midland College prior to the beginning of each semester. Student Services will provide each student with a letter outlining any reasonable accommodations. The student must present the letter to the instructor at the beginning of the semester.
