Dr. Karen Waggoner, assistant professor of geology, has been selected to participate in the Unique Research Experiences for two-year College faculty and Students (URECAS) planning workshop at the American Geophysical Union (AGU) headquarters in Washington, D.C., on July 11-13.

Dr. Waggoner’s participation is partially funded by the National Science Foundation.