Noted professor to speak about faith, spirituality and medicine

Dr. T. DeLanney’s visit was one of the best experiences I’ve ever had in my nearly 20 years of lecture programming . . . Rarely, if ever, have I heard a speaker entertain as well as educate.

Paedanthropologist to discuss “Why Our Origins Matter”

Robert Leakey — paleoanthropologist, conservative activist and author — will speak on “Why Our Origins Matter” at 7 p.m., Tuesday, April 12 at A.G. Langford Chaparral Center. Dr. Richard Leakey named one of TIME 100 Greatest Minds of the Century — a short list of 100 individuals who have had the greatest impact on humanity or the world — in 2005 has been recognized with numerous awards in recognition of his contributions to paleoanthropology, including the prestigious Richard Leakey Award from the American Association of Physical Anthropologists.

Dr. Leakey’s lecture is made possible by the Davidson Distinguished Lecture Series, Midland College and the Office of the President. Discussant will be Dr. Vanderpool, who will lecture on “Faith and Spirituality as a Factor in Healing” at 7 p.m., Thursday, April 7 at Al G. Langford Chaparral Center.
