3. Apply theories of communication in terms of computer-mediated communication.
4. Use various computer-mediated technologies to interact with others.
5. Demonstrate communication competency within computer-mediated environments.

Course Goals/Objectives:
Upon successful completion of the course, the student will know how to:

1. Apply communication theory to computer-mediated technologies
2. Evaluate the effectiveness of computer-mediated technologies

Student Contributions

ATTENDANCE IN THIS COURSE IS VITAL AND MANDATORY. Speech courses tend to promote student interaction, provoke discussion, and incorporate experiential learning. Not only is your involvement and participation in the class important, but much of the exam information will be provided in a lecture/discussion format and through class handouts.

CLASS PARTICIPATION. Since this is a speech communication course, it is important that you attempt to contribute your ideas, thoughts and feelings to the concepts discussed in class. You are encouraged to voice opinions, respond to questions, and offer comments regarding course content and related topics discussed in class in an appropriate and tactful manner. Common courtesy and attentive listening skills are expected of all students.

TESTS. Exams will be in different formats and will include material from lecture, texts, class discussions, and handouts. Exams may be taken as make-ups in the Testing Center within one week. Please note that make-up exams are designed to be more difficult than exams taken at regularly scheduled times.

ORAL PRESENTATIONS. Students will present a variety of oral demonstrations and reports both real time and electronically.
COURSE POLICIES

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY. Academic dishonesty includes cheating, fabrication, plagiarism (written and oral), and facilitating academic dishonesty. Disciplinary options include, but are not limited to, suspension and dismissal. (See the Midland College Student Handbook for a complete explanation of college policy).

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR. Appropriate classroom behavior including, respect for other’s opinions, courteous listening, and considerate use of language is expected of all students. Never enter the classroom while another student is speaking. Inappropriate behavior can result in your removal from the course. See the attached document, Appropriate College Classroom Behavior, for insight into the instructor’s expectations.

ORAL COMMUNICATION CENTER. (140 AFA) All Speech students have access to the OCC facilities, which will be explained and detailed in class. Recording of the oral presentations will take place in the OCC.
