

MIDLAND COLLEGE CAMPUS HOUSING REGULATIONS FAMILY UNITS

Welcome to Midland College Housing

The administration, faculty, and staff of Midland College would like to welcome you to campus housing. The students living on campus are an interesting and diverse group. To ensure a comfortable living environment - one that is beneficial to your academic success, we ask that you familiarize yourself with the following Midland College Campus Housing Regulations.

Residents are considered mature adults and are expected to act accordingly. Upon residing in campus housing, students agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the Midland College Catalog/Student Handbook, Campus Housing Regulations, and State and Federal laws governing the conduct of residents which are now in effect and any that may be adopted and published at a later date.

Midland College is an equal opportunity employer/educator. No person shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored or conducted by Midland College, on any basis prohibited by applicable law, including, but not limited to, race, color, age, marital status, national origin, religion, gender, disability or status as a qualified disabled veteran or Vietnam era veteran.

Unless otherwise stated, these regulations apply to the residents of the Family Units.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Academic success is extremely important to Midland College. Residents must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress to continue living in campus housing. Residents must maintain a 2.0 minimum cumulative GPA or have a 2.0 current term GPA for the most recent semester and earn credit in 50% of semester credit hours for which they have registered. If residents do not show satisfactory academic progress in a semester, they will be placed on probation. Residents failing to show satisfactory academic progress in more than one consecutive semester may not be allowed to return to housing.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodations for special needs in housing are available. Requests should be directed in writing to the Student Life Office.

ALCOHOL/ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTAINERS

Midland College is an alcohol free campus.

No consumable alcohol is allowed in campus housing even if the resident is of legal age. Residents are not allowed to keep alcoholic containers in their units. This constitutes possession of alcohol. Residents are held liable for their visitors who violate this and other Midland College policies/regulations.

Residents participating, possessing, being present in a unit while alcohol is present, and/or witnessing a violation of the alcohol policy are subject to fines, law enforcement citations and immediate expulsion from campus housing.

If an alcohol violation occurs and a resident is under 21 years of age, Midland College may notify the parents or guardian of the resident in accordance with the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

In addition, residents may receive a minor in possession or minor consuming citation.

If an alcohol violation occurs and a resident is over 21 years of age, contributing to a minor citation may be issued. A $100 fine for every underage person present will be assessed.

All individuals involved may be charged if alcohol is found in the unit.

Residents are subject to state and federal laws. Law enforcement officials may be summoned to handle violations.

ASSAULT

Physical or verbal harm to person or property may result in immediate permanent expulsion from campus housing and other disciplinary action.

BABYSITTING

Residents are not allowed to use their apartments for babysitting. Children (under age of 17 and not residents) should be in the presence of a parent or legal guardian at all times.

BACKGROUND CHECKS

Individuals with a conviction for a felony, Class A Misdemeanor or Class B Misdemeanor, or with pending charges at this level are ineligible to live in student housing. All prospective residents must give written permission for a background check and pay a $20 non-refundable fee. Background checks may be run each summer on new and returning residents.

CANCELLATION OF HOUSING RESERVATION FAMILY UNITS

Family Unit Occupants must provide written notice at least 30 days prior to agreed move-in date for deposit refund. Residents who fail to occupy agreed move-in date without 24 hours' notice of scheduled move in date will forfeit deposit and reservation.

CANDLES AND/OR INCENSE

Candles and incense are prohibited in campus housing.

CHECK-IN PROCEDURES

Proper check-in includes contacting housing office personnel, signing the Family Units housing contract, completing housing forms, clearing with the cashier's office, and receiving a key and housing publication.

Completion of any portion of the check-in procedures constitutes occupancy and obligates the resident to the entire contract. The housing contract is binding and the resident is responsible for paying the rental fees in full as stipulated in the contract. The rent and deposit may not be refunded if a resident breaks their housing contract.

Residents unable to complete all check-in procedures by the date of unit occupation must notify the Family Units Monitor of the impending delay to ensure that the deposit and reservation will not be forfeited.

Special arrangements must be approved by the Student Life Director or his/her designee.

CHECK-OUT PROCEDURES

The Family Units Monitor must receive 30 days written notice of intent to vacate. No pro-rate refunds will be granted.

Residents must make an appointment with the Units Monitor for checkout.

Remove all personal belongings. Midland College will not store personal property. Any personal belongings left in unit longer than 72 hours becomes Midland College property. Midland College reserves the right to dispose of this property without notice.

Apartments must be cleaned and sanitized, including but not limited to, sweeping, mopping, dusting the furniture, cleaning all appliances, the bathroom and fixtures.

Place all trash in dumpsters.

Clean the windows, mirrors, and clear the wall of any decals, posters, decorative items and adhesives.

All keys must be turned in during check out.

Midland College personnel will assess damage fees and cleanliness fees following check out. (See Damages)

CLASS HOUR REQUIREMENTS

During the academic school year, residents are required to enroll in and maintain 12 hours unless given written permission by the Student Life Director or his/her designee. Should a resident fall to part-time status due to withdrawing from one class, they will be allowed to complete the semester. Should the resident withdraw from more than one class, yet remain enrolled, then the resident must appeal to the Student Life Director or his/her designee to continue living in the Family Units. Residents who withdraw from all coursework have a maximum of three (3) days to vacate the Family Units. If circumstances dictate, a student may be required to vacate the building immediately.

To reside in the Family Units during the summer, residents must be enrolled in a minimum of three hours each summer session unless given written permission by the Student Life Director or his/her designee.

CLEANLINESS

Rooms and bathrooms within the unit must be kept clean. Periodic room checks will be conducted to assure cleanliness. Fines may be assessed if rooms are not cleaned.

Residents are also expected to maintain a proper level of personal hygiene.

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

Residents are responsible for the conduct of friends, family, and guests. Residents agree to abide by all housing rules and regulations as outlined in Campus Housing Regulations and/or the Midland College Catalog/Student Handbook. Possession of alcohol, narcotics and weapons of any kind including firearms are illegal and all regulations are enforced by Midland College officials and law officers. Residents may be subject to disciplinary action if a guest violates any of the above rules and regulations.

COMMUNITY BILLING

Residents may be held accountable for any damages or filth in public areas of the Family Units. Including but not limited to damages or trash around the Family Units if liability cannot be established. Assessment of the damage will be made by Midland College.

COMPLAINTS

Residents should register housing complaints in writing with the Family Units Monitor. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved, a written request for review must be directed to the Student Life Director.

CONTRACTS

Residents are required to sign a contract at the time of occupation. No refunds will be made which are inconsistent with the contract. The contract is binding and the resident is responsible for paying the rental fees in full as stipulated in the contract.

COOPERATION WITH COLLEGE OFFICIALS

Housing employees, such as the Family Units Monitor, Hall Managers and Front Desk Staff are college officials. Residents must immediately comply with directions from any college official. Verbal and/or physical abuse directed toward any college staff member will not be tolerated and will be cause for disciplinary action which may include immediate removal from the Family Units.

Residents are also expected to notify the Family Units Monitor or a Residence Hall Manager immediately if they are witness to any rule or regulation violations.

DAMAGES

Residents are responsible for any damages to the apartments regardless of who caused the damages. Residents will be charged for repairs or replacement. Reimbursement for any damages to common areas will be proportionally allocated to all the residents' assigned use of the common areas if liability cannot be determined. Residents are not responsible for damage caused by normal wear and tear. Determination of the amount of such loss or damage will be made by Midland College. Failure to pay the assessment promptly may result in a registration, graduation, or transcript hold, loss of the deposit, and/or loss of future residence privileges. Residents may appeal damage charges to the Family Units Monitor in writing within 7 days of notice.

DARTS/DARTBOARD

Because of their potential danger to both persons and property, darts and dartboards are not allowed. Velcro or magnetic dart boards are the only acceptable alternative.

DECORATIONS

When decorating your apartment use discretion with the appropriate hanging hardware. Windows, window treatments, ceilings, walls, mirrors, light fixtures and doors are included in this regulation. Aluminum foil or other material that blocks windows is prohibited.

No decorations are allowed outside a resident's apartment without written permission from the Family Units Monitor.

Street signs must have a bill of sale (receipt) with them or they will be considered stolen property and returned to the proper authorities.

Occasionally, when printed material and/or posters of an offensive nature (including vulgar language, posters with nudity, racial slurs, etc.) are displayed creating a threatening or otherwise degrading environment for others in the Family Units, the resident(s) will be asked to remove the objectionable item(s). Failure to remove the item may result in disciplinary action.

DEPENDENTS

Dependents must be 17 years of age or younger at the time of occupancy. Single parent must have legal primary custody of the dependents; residents may be asked to show proof of primary legal custody.

Dependents should be cared for according to the applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

DEPOSITS

A resident's deposit may be used to cover any damages assessed. Should the cost of damages exceed the total deposit, the resident will be held responsible for the remaining balance.

If the resident is in breach of the housing contract, the deposit will be forfeited. Refunds may take 6-8 weeks after move out to process. Any additional refund request must be in writing.

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

Disruptive behavior in the Family Units or parking lot areas is not acceptable. Disruptive behavior is defined as interference or obstruction of the activity and operation of the Family Units or parking lot areas. Interfering with an employee's ability to carry out job duties may be considered disruptive.

Pranks and practical jokes may be considered disruptive.

Use or possession of water guns or water balloons is not allowed.

Public intoxication or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs as demonstrated by one or more of the following conditions:

- i) any detectible amount of alcohol or illegal drugs in one's body,
- ii) inability to answer questions,
- iii) unsteady gate, no normal use of faculties,
- iv) inability to maintain balance,
- v) odor of alcoholic beverage on breath,
- vi) redness in eyes, and/or
- vii) a distinct odor of burning weeds will be considered a violation of the disruptive behavior policy.

DISCIPLINE

Violation of Midland College policies and housing regulations are subject to disciplinary procedures.

Disciplinary action may include:

- a) admonition and warning;
- b) community service;
- c) formal written warning;
- d) loss of privileges;
- e) fines;
- f) formal disciplinary probation;
- g) suspension; or
- h) dismissal.

Failure to comply with disciplinary action may result in registration, transcript hold, loss of the deposit, loss of future residence hall privileges, and/or expulsion from the Family Units.

DOORS, WINDOWS, WALLS, AND CEILINGS

The doors and windows of each unit should remain closed at all times for security. Residents and guests are not allowed to mark, write or draw on the doors, windows, walls, and ceilings. Tampering with Midland College property is prohibited and constitutes a serious breach of security regulations.

DRESS CODE

When in public areas, residents are expected to be dressed in appropriate attire. Appropriate attire includes:

1. Swimsuits with cover up.
2. Shirts, shorts, slacks, etc.
3. Robes over sleepwear
4. Pants worn in appropriate manner with no underwear showing

DRUGS

Illegal drugs are prohibited. Possession, use, witnessing the use of and/or sale of an illegal drug (as defined by the MIDLAND COLLEGE POLICY MANUAL and CATALOG/STUDENT HANDBOOK) is forbidden on campus. Possession of drug paraphernalia will also be considered a drug violation.

Use or possession of a toxic chemical for purposes of huffing is considered a drug violation. Nitrous oxide, any glue, paint remover, or chemicals with intoxicating fumes, as well as, paraphernalia including compressed gas containers, tubes, and bags will constitute a drug violation.

Please note that it is against the law to have in your possession another person's prescription medication. It is also illegal to have prescription medication that is not in a properly labeled bottle.

Residents are also subject to state and federal laws. Law enforcement officials may be summoned to handle violations. Midland College is a drug free campus.

There is no probation for drug violations.

Residents witnessing a violation of the drug policy are subject to immediate expulsion. All roommates may be cited if drugs are found in the room/unit/community area regardless of ownership. Residents who violate this policy are subject to immediate suspension from MIDLAND COLLEGE and expulsion from campus housing.

To control the use of illegal drugs at the Family Units, Midland College may conduct drug searches using the services of the local police department and/or a private agency. These searches may be unannounced.

- Calling 800 numbers or other numbers that result in charges to your room phone number.

EMERGENCIES

Emergency health care is defined as a medical situation which requires immediate attention. Residents should exercise judgment in determining an emergency. In an emergency situation, students should first try to secure their own emergency treatment. Call 911 if necessary. If a student contacts 911, please notify the family units monitor so they can direct paramedics.

In some emergency situations, it may be necessary for Midland College officials to notify parents or guardians of the resident's emergency situation. This action will be used at the discretion of the Vice President of Student Services or his/her designee.

ENTRY, SEARCH AND SEIZURE

Midland College officials have the right to search any room for reasons they deem appropriate to protect the health and safety of all residents. Units may be entered in the absence of the resident and without the resident's consent by authorized Midland College representatives for various reasons including, without limitation to, responding to emergencies, conducting inspections and inventories, performing maintenance, or investigating a policy/rule violation. Internet and e-mail usage may also be monitored by Midland College.

FACILITIES

All apartments have central heating and air conditioning. Apartments are not furnished. Residents must furnish their own personal effects.

Each apartment has cable TV, computer and phone outlets. Residents must furnish their own TV sets, telephones, computers, and computer software/hardware. Residents pay only for long distance calls and need to use some form of calling card. No collect calls will be allowed.

Accepting collect calls may result in a fine and payment of charges.

A resident and/or their guest may be charged for the following:

- Calling (local or long distance) directory assistance. Please use the phone book.

Call 1-800-FREE-411 (1-800-373-3411) for free directory assistance or go online at <http://www.free411.com>

Residents are responsible for all items brought into the units. Family Units residents may have cooking devices in the kitchen area only. Illegal appliances will be confiscated by housing personnel

Rooms and the furnishings provided therein are to be used in the manner for which they are designated. No Midland College property may be moved without written consent of the Family Units Monitor. Altering of or defacing furnishings is also prohibited. Each resident is responsible for proper use and care of all facilities, including bathrooms, hallways, lounge areas, and grounds.

Unauthorized entry into restricted areas such as mechanical rooms, roofs, ledges, and breaker boxes is prohibited. Intentionally blocking or creating an obstacle to any exit, entering or exiting through windows, or propping doors that are secured is prohibited.

Altering, tampering with, or disabling a smoke detection device or fire prevention device is prohibited. Deliberately initiating a false alarm of a fire system is prohibited. Dispensing the contents of a fire prevention device for any reasons other than to extinguish or prevent a fire is prohibited. Failure to respond to alarm systems and following evacuation procedures is prohibited. Prohibited actions may result in disciplinary action.

FINES

Residents are subject to fines according to the housing rules and regulations. All residents are provided with a housing charge/fines chart at the time of occupancy.

FIRE SAFETY AND OCCUPANCY

Each Family Unit has battery operated CO and fire detectors and fire extinguishers. Maintenance on each unit is provided twice a year by the Physical Plant staff.

In the event of a fire alarm, residents in the Family Units should move outside and away from the Units taking the safest way possible.

Candles, incense, devices with an open flame, fireworks, live Christmas trees, flammable liquids or fuel, overloaded electrical outlets, incendiary devices, and extension cords are all prohibited.

Use or possession of flammable materials, including incendiary devices or other dangerous materials, or substances used to ignite, spread, or intensify flames for fire are prohibited. Attempting to ignite and/or the action of igniting college and/or personal property either by intent or through reckless behavior which may result in damage of college premises will result in disciplinary action.

Due to the age and square footage of each apartment up to 4 persons are allowed to occupy one unit. It is recommended that any child 6 months of age or younger share a room with the parent(s)/guardian(s).

Residents are required to keep all windows free from boxes and clutter and a clear exit path to the front door at all times.

It is the responsibility of each resident to be familiar with procedures designed to ensure safety and security.

GETTING ALONG WITH YOUR NEIGHBOR

Honesty, understanding, and mutual respect are important elements in learning to live with your small community.

Try the following helpful hints:

- Communicate with your neighbor.
- Discuss pet peeves and issues before they arise.
- If there is a problem with your neighbor immediately notify the Family Units Monitor or his/her designee or the Student Life Director
- Don't leave nasty notes for your neighbor.
- Discuss the problem honestly and privately or with a mediator involved.

- Always involve the Family Units Monitor if you need assistance.

Please note, if a resident continually contributes to neighbor dissension among the Family Units, they may be subject to disciplinary procedures, including dismissal/suspension.

ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

Hazing, gambling, use or possession of various forms of drugs including synthetic and/or volatile chemicals and narcotics, and use or possession of alcoholic beverages and/or containers on Midland College property are in violation of the Student Conduct Regulations which are found in the Catalog/Student Handbook. All residents should make themselves familiar with the rules and regulations; violation of Midland College policy will result in disciplinary action.

ILLEGAL ENTRY

All residents must use their key to enter their apartment. Failure to do so constitutes illegal entry. Also, illegal entry may refer to entering a resident's apartment uninvited, even if door is unlocked or propped open. It is illegal to enter an unoccupied room even through a common room door. Illegal entry is subject to disciplinary action and/or dismissal from the family units (refer to keys/cards). NEVER LOAN YOUR KEY TO SOMEONE ELSE!

IMMUNIZATIONS

Effective January 1, 2010, the new Texas State Law, HB 4189, requires all students wanting to live on the Midland College campus for the first time MUST have a bacterial meningitis vaccination at a minimum of ten (10) days prior to move in.

Future residents must submit one of the following to the Student Life Office: evidence of the student having received the vaccination from an appropriate health practitioner; or an affidavit or a certificate signed by a physician who is duly registered and licensed to practice medicine in the United States, in which it is stated that, in the physician's opinion, the vaccination required would be injurious to the health and well-being of the student; or an affidavit signed by the student stating that the student declines the vaccination for bacterial meningitis for reasons of conscience, including a religious belief. A conscientious exemption form from the Texas Department of State Health Services must be used. (<https://webds.dshs.state.tx.us/immco/affdavit.shtm>)

Midland College requires that all residents have updated shots/immunizations. It is the resident's responsibility to make sure their records and history are up to date.

Midland College strongly urges that in addition to regular immunizations, residents also get the Hepatitis B and Polysaccharide Meningococcal vaccines.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

All computers must be turned off when not in use. Residents must follow the Midland College Computer Acceptable Use Policy outlined in the Catalog/Student Handbook. In addition, computers may not be used as servers when running various programs.

Students must be aware that illegal file-sharing could lead to massive fines and incarceration from law enforcement. Midland College will assist companies and law enforcement with investigations. Midland College may also pursue disciplinary action.

It is recommended that residents use an Ethernet card and cable. Wireless internet is available but not always dependable within the Family Units (Midland College does not support dial-up service.)

To use the free internet service provided by Midland College all computers must meet the following requirements:

- Pentium III or higher;
- Operating System (OS) with current and continuous updates. (Preferred OS-Windows 2000 or XP);
- Active subscription to anti-virus protection software; subscriptions should be purchased yearly;

Midland College Information Technology is not responsible for any other computer problems. Internet maintenance requests must be reported to the Units Monitor. Failure to follow all information technology procedures may result in fines and loss of computer (Internet) privileges. Residents may also be fined for directly contacting IT and failure to log in request with the Units Monitor.

INSURANCE

Residents are encouraged to purchase their own health and renter's insurance. Midland College, its governing board, administration and employees do not assume any legal liability for personal injury or loss or damage to personal property of housing residents and their family, friends, or guests which occur on Midland College property, including, without limitation to, loss or damages due to injury, death, rape, assault, theft, burglary, vandalism, and/or natural phenomenon (fire, flood, water leaks, rain, hail, smoke, explosions, and tornadoes).

INTERFERENCE WITH EQUIPMENT

Interference with any Midland College equipment (i.e. video cameras, wireless routers, smoke detectors, surveillance equipment, door alarms, etc.) is prohibited and may result in disciplinary action or immediate dismissal from the family units.

KEYS

Keys will be issued to the resident during check-in. Residents must keep their keys with them at all times. When a key is lost, a new key must be made. The resident who lost the key must pay a fee for this service before a new key is issued. Residents that fail to return their keys during checkout will receive a fine for improper checkout (refer to Illegal Entry).

Jeopardizing the security of the unit by failing to report lost or stolen keys is a serious violation.

Fines imposed for missing keys will not be removed for keys turned in 3 days after resident has moved out.

LAUNDRY FACILITIES

The Family Units have coin-operated laundry facilities. Residents are responsible for all laundry supplies. Clothing should not be left unattended. If laundry is left in a machine past the time when the machine stops, a person waiting for the machine may remove the laundry so they can use the machine. Midland College is not responsible for lost or stolen items. Residents are responsible for keeping the laundry rooms clean and for reporting maintenance needs to the Family Units Monitor. Residents should keep change for the machines. Residents attempting to override the fee may be subject to disciplinary action.

LITTER

Campus beautification is a major focus of the Student Life Office. Please help us keep our campus clean and safe by taking all waste to the dumpsters located in close proximity to the family units. Any individual caught littering will face disciplinary action. If litter is found outside and around the units, all residents may be charged a community fine.

LOITERING

Residents ARE NOT ALLOWED to loiter outside Campus Housing areas, parking lots or campus buildings.

MAIL

Resident's mail boxes are located in their respective Residence Hall. Residents should have their mail addressed as follows:

Resident's name
Family Units #
3600 N. Garfield
Midland, TX 79705

Midland College and the United States Post office are unable to forward mail from the college address.

MAINTENANCE

Maintenance requests should be reported to the Family Units Monitor. If maintenance finds that the request was not a result of normal wear and tear, then disciplinary action may follow.

MANDATORY MEETINGS

There may be mandatory meetings throughout each semester. Residents will be given important rules and regulations as well as updates on campus policies. Disciplinary action may result if a resident does not attend mandatory meetings. Residents are responsible for knowing and understanding information given at mandatory meetings.

MISSING PERSONS

If a resident is reported as missing, the Midland College Police Department will contact the individual identified by the resident on the Personal Information Sheet within 24 hours. If the missing student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated the school must immediately contact the custodial parent or legal guardian of the resident.

To report a resident missing, contact the Residence Hall Manager on duty, immediately.

NONPAYMENT

Late fees will be applied to unpaid accounts. Failure to make payment may lead to suspension/expulsion.

OFFENSIVE BEHAVIOR

Midland College endeavors to provide an environment which the community and residents can be proud. Therefore, all acts which can be seen as offensive, such as sexual activity, profanity, and destruction of personal property or door decoration and obscene gestures are prohibited in Residence Halls and Family Units.

Offensive behavior is defined as any activity that is offensive to Midland College or others in the facility. Violations will result in disciplinary action or immediate and permanent dismissal.

OFFICIAL SUMMONS

Student Life or administrative officers of Midland College may request that a resident attend a meeting to discuss matters including, but not limited to; records or financial affairs, disciplinary investigations, educational programs, or other matters. These requests are OFFICIAL SUMMONS. Failure to respond or appear to an Official Summons may result in investigation decisions without input and/or formal disciplinary action.

PARENT/GUARDIAN NOTIFICATION

Midland College may notify the emergency contacts listed on a resident's housing information if the resident's health or well-being is in question.

PARKING

Campus parking stickers are available at the time of course registration and also at the MC Police Department office located in Room 136, Scharbauer Student Center. Any vehicle that the resident(s) own must have a parking permit in order to remain parked overnight on campus.

Fines will be issued to residents not having a parking sticker on their vehicles and for parking in unauthorized campus parking.

PARTIES

To protect the rights of other residents, unscheduled parties are not allowed at the units. Parties and dances may be scheduled in approved locations by the Student Life Director. Children's birthday parties may be scheduled with the Family Units Monitor.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE (RENT AND FEES)

Rental payments and other fees are paid at the Cashier's Office. Residents shall pay the rental fees on the first of each month and will be considered late after the fourth (4th) of the month. A late fee of 20% will be added after the 4th calendar day. Failure to pay may result in dismissal.

PETS/ANIMALS

No Animals or Pets (including mammals, reptiles, birds, fish, rodents, amphibians, arachnids and insects) are allowed, even temporarily, anywhere in the residence halls, family units, or any campus building unless so authorized in writing by Midland College. Fines and restitution for expenses incurred to remove a pet may be charged to both roommates. If you have a "rescued" pet notify the Residence Hall Manager or Family Units Monitor immediately for friendly animal placement. Authorized exceptions will be made in the case of Service and Assistance Animals.

Service Animals:

ADA regulations define "service animals" narrowly as any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability.

Assistance Animals:

Under the Fair Housing Act, a person may keep an assistance animal in his/her dwelling as a reasonable accommodation if:

1. The person has a disability;
2. The animal is necessary to afford the person with a disability an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling, and;
3. There is an identifiable relationship or nexus between the disability and the assistance the animal provides.

In the case of service animals and assistance animals residing in College housing, Midland College will require a "Verification Form for Housing Accommodations" be submitted by a treating physician or mental health provider at least thirty (30) days prior to the desired move-in date so the college can best accommodate the student, the service animal, and the campus community. All questions or requests for accommodations for either Service Animals or Assistance Animals can be directed to the Student Disability Services (SDS) office #245 in the Scharbauer Student Center, or by phone at 432-685-4505.

Conflicting Disabilities:

Individuals who have allergic reactions to animals that are substantial enough to qualify as a disability need to follow procedures to document a medical/physical disability and request specific accommodations related to such disability related needs through the Student Disability Services (SDS) office in the Scharbauer Student Center Room 245 or via phone 432-685-4505, fax 432-685-4623. Midland College will consider the needs of both individuals to reasonably accommodate all involved and resolve the problem as efficiently and expeditiously as possible.

POLICE/SECURITY

Police or security officers are on campus 24 hours a day. They are present for student's safety and to enforce Midland College policies and regulations. Problems should be reported to the officers if the Family Units Monitor is unavailable. Residents are obligated to abide by the police and security's requests. Crime statistics are available in the campus police office for student review.

QUIET HOURS

Quiet hours begin nightly at 10 p.m. and are observed until 9:00 a.m. the next morning. Violation of quiet hours from loud noises, music, television, talking, screaming, etc., may result in disciplinary action.

Residents are expected to respect the request for quiet by any staff or resident.

REFUNDS

Refund of deposit will be determined following the final inspection of the vacated unit.

RENOVATIONS

Residents are not allowed to renovate, construct any structure, paint, or carpet their rooms or apartments.

RETALIATION

Any attempt to intimidate, threaten, or create a hostile environment for any person involved in reporting an incident is strictly prohibited. Sanctioning for retaliation may include permanent removal from the Family Units.

ROOM CHECKS

All units are subject to entry by the Family Units Monitor, Residence Hall Managers and other Midland College officials to check conditions of rooms, the need for repairs, or to make repairs. In addition, Midland College reserves the right to enter any unit to maintain discipline and to provide security for resident's property.

SAFETY TIPS

1. Keep your door shut and locked at all times.
2. Record the serial numbers of all valuables for identification purposes.
3. Use the buddy system when walking after dark.
4. Inform your neighbor of your whereabouts and expected time of your return.
5. Do not allow strangers to enter your unit.
6. Call 911 for police, fire or medical emergencies.
7. Use door's "peep hole" to view the person outside the door before unlocking and opening it. Report missing or damaged "peepholes" to the Family Units Monitor immediately.
8. Do not put personal information (i.e. birth date, address, phone number, etc...) on public domain websites.
9. Become familiar with all safety procedures (i.e. fire, storm) of the Family Units.
10. Participate fully in all drills.
11. Be conscious of drastic behavior change in yourself or other residents. Contact a Family Units Monitor or Residence Hall Manager to report concerns.

SIGNS/NOTICES

Signs will be posted to notify residents of meetings, activities, changes to policies, or general information. Residents are responsible for reading all information provided. Residents are expected to not interfere or tamper with these signs. College permission is required to post any signs.

SKATES, ROLLER BLADES, BIKES AND SKATEBOARDS

Residents are permitted to use skates, roller blades and skateboards on the sidewalks around the classroom buildings.

STAFFING

The Family Units Monitor lives in Family Housing to assist residents. The Units Monitor will enforce Midland College policies, monitor the conditions of Family Housing, and carry out intermediate discipline when necessary. In the absence of the Units Monitor, other Residence Hall Staff will assume these duties.

Residents in Family Housing may always receive assistance by contacting the front desk of any Residence Hall and asking for the Residence Hall Manager on duty.

SUSPENSION/EXPULSION

Residents may be suspended or evicted from housing when they fail to meet enrollment requirements, fail to make financial payments, or as a result of disciplinary action.

Residents suspended or evicted from the Family Units will forfeit their deposit (no refund of deposit funds will be applied to any additional and/or current charges placed on the student's account).

Residents may be liable for the full payment of their rent. Rent may not be refunded or prorated.

Suspended or evicted residents have 72 hours to vacate the unit. Residents or individuals who are suspended or evicted are not allowed to visit the Family Units or any residence hall. Suspended or evicted residents are subject to trespassing charges.

Any personal property left behind after the 72 hour eviction becomes the property of Midland College.

Midland College reserves the right to dispose of the personal property at their discretion without notice to the resident.

THEFT

Possession of any property not of your own is illegal. This includes, but is not limited to, road signs and property of the college, member of the college community, or of any campus visitor. (Should you be a victim of theft, contact the Family Units Monitor and/or Residence Hall Manager and file a theft report with MCPD within 12 hours.) Proven theft will result in permanent dismissal from the residence halls or family units.

TITLE IX / SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Members of the Midland College community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual violence. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. The College believes in a zero tolerance policy for gender-based misconduct. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate administration's attention and a respondent is found to have violated this policy, serious sanctions will be used to reasonably ensure that such actions are never repeated.

Sexual harassment is unwelcome sexual conduct by other students or school employees that interferes with a student's right to get an education or to participate in school activities. Sexual harassment may be same-sex or opposite-sex. In addition, sexual harassment includes hostile or demeaning conduct targeting someone's sex that is sufficiently severe, persistent and pervasive so that it unreasonably interferes with, limits or denies someone the ability to participate in or benefit from the college's educational program. Midland College takes allegations of sexual harassment serious and investigates all reports.

Title IX and Nondiscrimination refer to federal and state anti-discrimination laws that ensure equality in education. Sexual harassment of or by school employees or students is a form of discrimination and is therefore prohibited. For more information, consult the Student Rights & Responsibilities in the Midland College Catalog online or contact the Title IX Coordinator located in office 242 of the Student Center or email title9@midland.edu.

TOBACCO

Use of tobacco products, including e-cigarettes and all other smoking devices, is not allowed inside the Family Units apartments. Smoking is permitted in outside designated areas as dictated by college policy. Use of tobacco and other smoking devices in undesignated areas will result in disciplinary action.

VISITATION

Visitor and/or Guest: Any person visiting an apartment that does not reside at the Family Units.

Visitors are allowed at the Family Units from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 p.m. Unless prior written permission is given, any non-resident at the Family Units after visitation hours will be considered an unauthorized visitor and may be subject to a citation, arrest, or if a Midland College student, disciplinary action. The resident hosting the guest may also be subject to disciplinary action including but not limited to loss of visitation privileges. Residents are responsible for their guests.

Residents must have written requests for overnight guests to the Units Monitor no less than 3 days prior to the arrival of the visitor.

Overnight visitors may not stay for more than 3 consecutive days at a time and no more than three (3) weeks over the course of a semester unless approved in advance by the Student Life Director or his/her designee.

Any violation of this policy or failure to notify the Units Monitor of guests may result in immediate visitation suspension and/or further disciplinary action.

Non-residents who violate Midland College policies may lose all visitation privileges and face disciplinary charges with Midland College and with the local police.

WEAPONS

Weapons, ammunition, fireworks, explosives, paintball guns, BB guns, pellet guns, and facsimiles of weapons are prohibited on Midland College property. Residents may not possess these items on campus or in vehicles parked on Midland College property. Possession of any of the weapons may lead to permanent dismissal from the residence halls or family units.
