

Exam # 1 Study Guide

Potential IDs – Answer 5 of 8 on Exam – 50 Total Points

Ferdinand and Isabella	Moses Austin
Christopher Columbus	Stephen F. Austin
“The Enterprise of the Indies”	Imperial Colonization Law, 1823
Hernando Cortes	Martin de Leon
Francisco de Garay	Fredonian Rebellion
Panfilo de Narvaez	Manuel de Mier de Teran
Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca	Law of 6 April 1830
Francisco Vasquez de Coronado	Sam Houston
Encomienda System	Anahuac Rebellion
Spanish Mission System	William Barret Travis
Rene Robert, Sieur de La Salle	Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna
Alonso de Leon	Causes of the Texas Revolution
Father Damian Massanet	General Martin Perfecto de Cos
Domingo Teran	Lorenzo de Zavala
Louis Juchereau de Saint-Denis	Juan Seguin
Marques de San Miguel de Aguaya	Battle of Gonzales
Jose de Escadon	Battle of Concepcion
Marques de Rubi	The Consultation
Philip Nolan	Battle of the Alamo
Bernardo Gutierrez de Lara	Goliad
James Long	Battle of San Jacinto
Legacy of Spanish Texas	Treaty of Velasco

Potential Essay Questions – Answer 2 of 3 on Exam – 50 Total Points

Describe Texas before European contact. Be sure to include a discussion of its people, climate, and ecology.

Identify the important explorers of Texas. What motivated these men to risk their lives in a distant, inhospitable land?

Describe the process that led Spanish/Mexican officials to invite Anglo Americans to Texas. What other methods were utilized to maintain control of the far northern frontier?

What changes did the Mexican Revolution bring to Texas? What was the lasting impact of Mexican independence in Texas?

Chronicle the evolution of Stephen F. Austin's plan for Texas. How did he go from ideal empresario to revolutionary?

Discuss the various causes of the Texas Revolution. What do you feel are the most important/viable reasons both Texans and Mexicans went to war with their government?