The following instructions, guidance, and directions were provided to students via email:

Midland College students are all part of our MC family, and we care deeply about you, your friends and family.

The U.S. Congress has allocated CARES Act Higher Education Emergency Relief funding to eligible Midland College students impacted by disruptions during the spring 2020 semester due COVID-19. We have determined that you may be eligible for some of these funds; however, we need you to complete this questionnaire: https://midland.formstack.com/forms/cares\_application.

The uncertainty of the spread of COVID-19 as well as the dramatic decline in the West Texas oil & gas economy has made many of our students uneasy and caused some hardships. Besides the CARES Emergency Relief funding, Midland College also has other resources and services available to our students. While COVID-19 may have closed our buildings, the offices and services are still available to you remotely. We are only an email, message and video call away.
