

SUBJECT: Campus Security Personnel

The Board may employ and commission peace officers for the purposes of carrying out law enforcement functions on campus. The primary jurisdiction of a peace officer so commissioned includes all counties in which property is owned, leased, rented, or otherwise under the control of Midland College.

Within the peace officer's primary jurisdiction, a peace officer commissioned by the Board

1. Is vested with all the powers, privileges, and immunities of peace officers;
2. May, in accordance with Chapter 14, Code of Criminal Procedure, arrest without warrant any person who violates a law of the state; and
3. May enforce all traffic laws on streets and highways;
4. May enforce the College's rules and regulations related to traffic, parking, security and safety.

Outside the peace officer's primary jurisdiction, a peace officer commissioned by the Board is vested with all the powers, privileges, and immunities of peace officers and may arrest any person who violates any law of the state if the peace officer

1. Is summoned by another law enforcement agency to provide assistance;
2. Is assisting another law enforcement agency; or
3. Is otherwise performing his duties as a peace officer for Midland College.
