

SUBJECT: Auxiliary Enterprises

Auxiliary enterprises are those which are established to provide services ancillary to the instructional programs. Auxiliary enterprises are intended to be self supporting from fees charged for the services.

- A. Fees charged for auxiliary enterprises services shall be established to provide for the operating expenses, equipment replacement, and a reasonable profit.
- B. The following auxiliary enterprises are authorized:
 - 1. A bookstore to provide textbooks and supplies required for courses and laboratories offered by the College and sundry items for the convenience of students and employees. The bookstore shall be open to the general public.
 - 2. Food service facilities which will provide snacks, hot meals, beverages, vending facilities, and banquet services for the benefit of students and employees. The food service facilities shall be open to the general public.
 - 3. Residence halls which will provide on-campus housing for single students and apartment style housing for students with families.
- C. An operating budget shall be prepared each year for each auxiliary service enterprise and shall be included with the College's Annual Operating Budget.
- D. Profits from auxiliary enterprise operation may be used for the benefit of the College at the President's discretion.
