

SUBJECT: Software Upgrades

Software in use by employees and the general student population should be upgraded when such upgrades are available and upgrade is possible. Information Technology should maintain licensing agreements to facilitate college-wide upgrades and replacements of software, as appropriate.