

SUBJECT: Network Upgrades

The data and communication network electronics should be periodically upgraded to conform to technical currency. The Education/Information Technology Committee should annually review a report by the Vice President of Information Technology and Facilities regarding network performance compared to technical standards. The Committee should then consider the cost of, determine the appropriateness of and/or recommend network upgrades. The Committee will advise the Vice President of its immediate concerns and anticipated technology needs.