Midland College Syllabus
ITSC 2370
Android Programming

Course Description

Use of project management software for developing a project plan including timelines, milestones, scheduling, life cycle phases, management frameworks, skills, processes, and tools.

Prerequisite/Co-requisite: COSC 1330 and/or ITSC 2313

Course Participation

For Online and Hybrid classes, students MUST actively participate by completing an academic assignment by the official census date. Students who do not do so, will be dropped from the course.

Text, References and Supplies

Should you choose to purchase your textbooks somewhere other than the college bookstore you should always check with the instructor first to make sure that there has not been a change in books and that you are purchasing the complete package used for the course.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) and Core Competencies

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

- SLO1 Create Android Projects
- SLO2 Design Mobile User Interfaces
- SLO3 Produce Documentation
- SLO4 Deploy Android applications across various devices
- SLO5 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of Android vocabulary and terms

Student Contributions

Students are encouraged to contact the instructor at any time. If you need to meet with the instructor, you will need to make an appoint to guarantee the instructor’s availability at a specific time.

Students will be expected to exhibit professional behavior in class. With regard to cell phone use, keep it on silent and do not take calls unless it is an emergency.

Students are expected to attend class, for online that means logging in to Canvas regularly and completing assignment.
Policy Information

Students MUST log in and actively participate by completing academic assignments required by the instructor by the official census date. Students who log in but do not actively participate in an academically-related activity will be reported as Never Attended and dropped from the course.

This will be an in-depth, fast-paced course. It is important that you complete the assignments before the due dates. Late work will not be accepted. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

Should you find that you are unable to complete the course, it is necessary for you to contact the Office of Student Services at Midland College and officially drop the class; otherwise a grade of “F” will be given for the semester grade. The policy for student withdrawals is stated in the Student Handbook in the Student Rights, Responsibilities & Due Process section.

Students with Disabilities

Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must place documentation on file with the Counselor/Disability Specialist. Students with disabilities should notify Midland College prior to the beginning of each semester.

Student Services will provide each student with a letter outlining any reasonable accommodations. The student must present the letter to the instructor at the beginning of the semester.

Scholastic Dishonesty

Midland College does not tolerate scholastic dishonesty or academic misconduct in any form. Please read the MC Student Handbook on this subject. Full information about Midland College policy can be found at Scholastic Dishonesty and Academic Misconduct.
