

MIDLAND COLLEGE
SYLLABUS
SEMESTER AND YEAR
CRIJ 1306
COURT SYSTEMS AND PRACTICES
CORE CURRICULUM COURSE

COURSE DESCRIPTION :

A study of the judiciary in the American criminal justice system. Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to discuss: the structure of the Texas court system; the prosecution of offenders; the basic right to counsel; the concept of pretrial release; the purpose and function of the grand jury; the procedural processes of adjudication; the rules of evidence; rules concerning trial procedure; and the disposition of criminal cases. By focusing on court systems and the rules of procedure, the student will better understand why particular cases are filed in certain courts, and why certain procedures are required, while others are prohibited. Studying procedural law enables students to have a more complete understanding of the criminal process, from arrest through appeal.

TEXT – REQUIRED: current required textbook information

COURSE GOALS/OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- describe the American judicial systems (civil, criminal, and juvenile), their jurisdiction, development and structure;
- analyze the function and dynamics of the courtroom work group;
- identify judicial processes from pretrial to appeal;
- describe the significant Constitutional Amendments, doctrines, and other sources of law in the American judicial system.

PARTICIPATION STATEMENT

Students must dedicate themselves to learning while in college. You should follow the syllabus, read each chapter before it is discussed in class, and use effective study techniques (e.g. note taking, outlining the text, flash cards; study groups) to improve chances for success. Additional time is required for preparing for examinations and completing assignments. Attendance is important in all classes; a grade is given for attendance and participation. Students are encouraged to ask questions and, if necessary, meet with the instructor during office hours for additional help.

Portable cellular phones, beepers, and similar devices are disruptive to the class, and you are encouraged NOT to bring them into the classroom. If you do bring them to class, please make sure they are turned off. Should they become a nuisance, you will be asked to remove them from the classroom. You may bring beverages into the classroom, but may not eat during class or wear hats in the classroom. You are expected to be on time, and remain in class until the end. Coming late and leaving early will affect your participation grade.

Students missing a major examination must make up the examination before the next class. Make-up examinations may be the same as, or different from, the examination given in class. Make-up examinations will cover the same material as the scheduled examination. Failure to make up an examination within the specified time will result in a grade of zero for the missed exam. Students missing class are responsible for finding out what was missed and getting the notes from another student. The instructor reserves the right to give quizzes, announced or unannounced, at any time. There is no opportunity to make up quizzes that are missed. Final exams are not given early or late.

For Online courses, students MUST actively participate by completing an academic assignment by the official census date. Students who do not do so, will be dropped from the course.

Notice: The instructor cannot drop students who stop attending or have an excessive number of absences. Missed work will be graded as zero and averaged into the final grade. It is your responsibility to drop a class if you no longer plan to attend and complete the semester. Check the Midland College catalog for last day to drop.

EVALUATION OF STUDENTS:

Major examinations	50% of semester grade
Assignments	40% of semester grade
Attendance	10% of semester grade
