STUDENT CONTRIBUTIONS AND CLASS POLICIES

Films shown in class

Through the course of the semester you will view approximately 6 films in class covering a wide range of genres. Each film will be preceded by a brief lecture on the genre and followed by a group discussion. Contributions to discussions will be credited toward your participation grade.
Reading assigned chapter
Instead of lecture over the development and history of film in the US, you will be responsible for reading chapters from the book. Chapters assigned are 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 16, 18 & 20

Chapter Quizzes
Ten quizzes will be given over each chapter assigned for reading. Quizzes will be available online from 8:00 a.m. on Monday through 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday during the week they are to be taken. Worth a maximum of 20 points each.

Exams
Midterm Exam will cover chapters 1,2,3,5,6 and 8 as well as all movies seen in class and lectures given up to the exam. Worth 100 points
Final Exam will cover chapters 10,12,16,18 and 20 as well as all movies seen in class and lectures given after the midterm. Worth a maximum of 100 points

Plagiarism
Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgement, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material from books, encyclopedias, and other reference works (including the Internet) or from the themes, reports, or other writing of anyone, is guilty of plagiarism.
Students cheating or committing plagiarism are liable to serious consequences, which may include suspension and/or a grade of “F”.

Special Class Rule
Poor planning on your part does not constitute an emergency on my part.

We do not accept excuses about computers and/or printers breaking down, dogs eating papers, missed performances due to sell-outs, leaving the work at home, etc. Plan your semester now! Do not wait until the last minute to do your work!
You need not ask permission to miss a class, leave a class early, or present a late assignment.

Special testing instruction
All online tests will be given a time limit. Time limits will be announced online with the test instructions. You will be penalized one point for every minute you exceed the time allowed. All quizzes and exams must be taken as scheduled- no make-ups allowed.

Film Critiques
In addition to the films seen in class, you are required to view and critique four additional films. These two-page critiques will focus on at least two important aspects that made the film either a success or failure. Critique films must be either first-run films or appear on the AFI top 100 list found on the link provided on the website. Worth a maximum of 50 points each.

Film Script
In order to reach a better understanding of the importance of the script and how film narrative differs from literature and theatrical narrative, you will write a short (4 pages maximum) script. You will base this script on a short story found on the website. Worth a maximum of 50 points.

Story Board
To better understand how a script is turned into a film, you will create a storyboard that pictorially outlines a script. Worth a maximum of 50 points.

Term Project
To prove your understanding of the art of film making, you will take part in the creation of an original film. Your participation level and your results will determine the final grade. Worth a maximum of 200 points: 100 points participation and 100 points results.

Participation
Continual and effective class participation factors include, but may not be limited to, joining class discussions, regular and timely class attendance, and completion of all assignments. Worth a maximum of 100 points.

Written Work
All written work must be typed using double-spaced, Courier font of no greater than 12 point. Margins should be 1-inch on all sides. Papers are to be left-justified only! All work must adhere to formatting requirements. Pages must be stapled together. All assignments must have your name in the upper right hand corner of the first page of the paper (DO NOT USE A TITLE PAGE). Your name may be written neatly by hand. If this information is missing and/or the assignment is formatted incorrectly, the grade will be lowered. For specifics on the film script formatting, see the in-class hand-out.

Attendance
Attendance will be taken at the start of each class. Arriving late or leaving early is equivalent to an absence. Extra work to erase absences is not permitted. You may miss one class during the semester without penalty. Your participation grade will be lowered 50% for your 2nd missed class, and reduced to 0 for your 3rd missed class. Upon the 4th missed class, you should withdraw from the course. Because you receive “free” absences, absences, including illness, transportation problems, and other commitments are not generally excusable. Arrange appointments with doctors, exams for other classes, etc., at times other than during this class.
THE PROFESSOR WILL NOT ADMINISTRATIVELY WITHDRAW STUDENTS FROM THE COURSE. SHOULD YOU DECIDE TO DROP, IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DO SO THROUGH THE REGISTRAR.

Academic Integrity
Cheating — Dishonesty on examinations and quizzes or written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination or quiz, obtaining information during an examination from the examination paper or otherwise from another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry to or unauthorized presence in an office are instances of cheating.

INSTITUTIONAL ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

ADA Statement— The Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act require that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination by any program or activity provided by an institution or entity receiving federal financial assistance. It is this Section 504 mandate that has promoted the development of disability support service programs in colleges and universities across the country. Subpart E of Section 504 deals specifically with this mandate for institutions of higher education. While it does not require that special educational programming be developed for students with disabilities, it does require that an institution (public or private) be prepared to make appropriate academic adjustments and reasonable accommodations in order to allow the full participation of students with disabilities in the same programs and activities available to nondisabled students.

Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must place documentation on file with the Counselor/Disability Specialist. Students with disabilities should notify Midland College prior to the beginning of each semester. Student Services will provide each student with a letter outlining any reasonable accommodations. The student must present the letter to the instructor at the beginning of the semester.
