*Core Curriculum Course

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

HIST 2381- African-American History I

A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of people of African descent in the formation and development of the United States to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. African American History I include the study of African origins and legacy, trans- Atlantic slave trade, and the experiences of African Americans during Colonial, Revolutionary, Early National, Antebellum, and the Civil War/Reconstruction Eras. This course will enable students to understand African American history as an integral part of U.S. history. (May be applied to the U.S. History requirement.)

Learning Outcomes - Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of African American history.

PARTICIPATION STATEMENT: Students must actively participate by completing an academic assignment by the official census date. Students who do not do so, may be dropped from the course.

REQUIRED COURSE MATERIALS: Will be current and no-cost to students. Students should contact their instructor prior to purchasing the text and supplies to confirm required course materials.

INCLUSION OF CORE CURRICULUM OBJECTIVES: These Core Curriculum Courses fulfill three hours of the History/Social and Behavioral Science requirement in the Midland College Core Curriculum. The Core Curriculum is a set of courses that provide students with a foundation of knowledge, skills and educational experiences that are essential for all learning.

Social and Behavioral Sciences courses involve the exploration of behavior and interactions among individuals, groups, institutions, and events, examining their impact on the individual, society, and culture. As part of the core, this course addresses the following four objectives:

- Critical thinking: students will analyze and evaluate primary and secondary source documents related to the content of American history and demonstrate a knowledge of the content through examination and essay assignments.
- Communication skills: students will demonstrate communication skills through discussion and written work.
- Social Responsibility: through the study of American history students will gain knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
- Personal Responsibility: the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making. Students will be responsible for completing assignments and exams on time. The instructor will also vigorously enforce standards of academic integrity.

STUDENT CONTRIBUTIONS, RESPONSIBILITIES AND CLASS POLICIES: Will be posted by the instructor in individual course syllabus. Students should contact their instructor if they have any questions.
