Student Contribution: Students are encouraged to contact the instructor at any time. If you need to meet with the instructor, you will need to make an appoint to guarantee the instructor's availability at a specific time. Office hours will be posted in CANVAS.

Students will be expected to exhibit professional behavior in class. With regard to cell phone use, keep it on silence and do not take calls unless it is an emergency.

Students are expected to attend class, for online that means logging in and completing assignments.

Late Work: Assignments will be due on the date assigned. In the event an assignment must be submitted later than the scheduled due date the student must get instructor permission.
This is an online/hybrid class. You will be expected to keep up with the assignments posted in CANVAS. You must email the professor once a week with your progress.

Policy Information:

Students MUST actively participate by completing an academic assignment required by the instructor by the official census date. Students who do not actively participate in an academically-related activity will be reported as never attended and dropped from the course.

This will be an in-depth, fast-paced course. It is important that you complete the assignments before the due dates. Late work will not be accepted. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

Should you find that you are unable to complete the course, it is necessary for you to contact the Office of Student Services at Midland College and officially drop the class; otherwise a grade of “F” will be given for the semester grade.

Class Policy:

It is each student’s responsibility to become familiar with Midland College policies as explained in the Midland College Student Handbook. Cheating, plagiarism, and any other form of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated.
