ITNW 1308 – Syllabus
Implementing and Supporting Client Operating Systems
SCH (3-1)

Course Description:
This course examines two of the most prominent operating systems in parallel: Windows 7 and Fedora Linux. Rather than using a compare and contrast model, each concept is first presented conceptually before demonstrating it simultaneously on both operating systems. Students will be able to instantly switch between Windows 7 and Fedora Linux to complete hands-on activities that reinforce the similarities between the two operating systems for each conceptual task. Tasks include: Installing and maintaining operating systems; Configuring and utilizing common utilities and applications; Implementing and maintaining files and file systems; Exploring the fundamentals of installing, managing and configuring network clients.

Student Learning Objectives:
- Install and configure Windows and Linux based systems operating systems.
- Configure and manage operating system interfaces, utilities and applications.
- Perform basic file management operations.
- Create, mount, and manage operating system file systems.
- Identify, access, and control hardware resources.
- Maintain and update operating system installations.
- Connect and share operating system resources via simple network environments.

Text and Supplies:

Course Policies:

It is each student’s responsibility to become familiar with Midland College policies as detailed in the Midland College Student Handbook. Any requests for clarification of Midland College policies and their relevance to the course should be addressed to the course instructor.

Course Census: Students MUST actively participate in the course by completing an academically-related activity, assigned by the instructor, by the official course census date. Students who do not complete the census activity by the course census date will be reported as never attended and dropped from the course.

Students with Disabilities: Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must place documentation on file with the Counselor/Disability Specialist. Students with disabilities should notify Midland College prior to the beginning of each semester. Student Services will provide each student with a letter outlining any reasonable accommodations. The student must present the letter to the instructor at the beginning of the semester.

Scholastic Dishonesty: The coursework submitted for this course must be original work prepared by the student enrolled in this course. Cheating, plagiarism, and any other form of academic dishonesty as defined in the Midland College handbook can result in appropriate disciplinary action.

Class Policies:

This will be a fast-paced course. It is important that students keep up with the schedule by studying outside of class and completing all assignments in a timely manner.

Participation: Active class participation in class discussions and activities is essential to successful completion of this course. Effective preparation for class includes reading course materials and completing assigned coursework outside of scheduled class meetings. Students who would like additional help in preparing for class meetings should contact the instructor for assistance.

Communication: Effective communication is critical to successful completion of this course. Questions about the course or requests for assistance with course materials should be addressed to the instructor in person, by telephone during scheduled office hours, and/or through CANVAS at any time. All digital correspondence between students and the instructor should be via student email and/or CANVAS. Personal email, text messaging, and other forms of digital communication are discouraged.

Cell phones: Cell phones must be placed on either vibrate or silent mode and should be accessed in emergency cases only.

Late Work: All graded coursework will include a due date when assigned. In the event coursework must be submitted later than the scheduled due date, the student should not expect to receive the maximum credit available for the assignment. Late submissions should be discussed with the instructor prior to the due date when possible and will be evaluated on a case by case basis.
Student Contributions:

- Students are expected to attend class and be on time for scheduled class meetings.
- Students are expected to exhibit professional and courteous behavior during class meetings.
- Students are expected to access the course in CANVAS frequently to be informed of announcements related to the course.
- Students are expected to utilize effective time management strategies to prepare for class.
- Students are expected to participate in discussions and activities related to topics covered in the course.
- Students are expected to complete and submit assigned coursework by due dates listed in CANVAS.
- Students are expected to utilize all resources provided to complete coursework related to the course.

Instructor Contributions:

As an instructor, I acknowledge the importance of clear, timely communication with students. In order to facilitate communication with students, I will:

- Provide my contact information and scheduled office hours in CANVAS.
- Respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday.
- Notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information for assistance during any time that I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I anticipate that my students will work to the best of their abilities to complete assigned coursework. In order to assist students in this area, I will:

- Provide clear information about assignment requirements in CANVAS and grading policies in the course syllabus.
- Communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will:

- Post grades and comments, when needed, for all graded coursework within 1 week of the due date.
- Maintain scheduled office hours and keep scheduled appointments to meet with students.
Grading/Evaluation:

Coursework submitted by the student will be evaluated by the instructor throughout the semester. It is the responsibility of the student to keep track of assignment submissions and grades. Students are encouraged to meet with the instructor regularly to discuss academic progress in the course.

Coursework will be assigned a maximum point value for each assignment and will be posted in CANVAS. Points earned for submitted assignments will be recorded in the CANVAS grade book.

All assignments will be weighted according to the grading scheme noted below to determine a final grade. Upon conclusion of the course, the student’s final grade will be converted to the appropriate semester grade and will be reported to the registrar’s office.

Students should not stop completing class assignments and expect a grade of “I” or “W”. It is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor should circumstances arise that impair or prevent the student from completing the course. The instructor will attempt to help the student complete the course. If the student is not able to successfully complete the course, the student must contact the Office of Student Services at Midland College and officially drop the class, otherwise a grade of “F” will be reported for the semester grade.

Students with Disabilities:

Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must place documentation on file with the Counselor/Disability Specialist. Students with disabilities should notify Midland College prior to the beginning of each semester. Student Services will provide each student with a letter outlining any reasonable accommodations. The student must present the letter to the instructor at the beginning of the semester.
