COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students who scored 345-350 on the TSI Reading Assessment, or are complete in reading with a TSI writing score of 310-339 and an essay score of 1-4. It is designed to enable students to integrate critical reading and academic writing skills in order to comprehend and interact with college-level texts and to produce college-level writing. Course includes 16 hours in lab to be arranged by the student. This course is not for college credit. The reading TSI score will calculate placement in this course. Corequisite: PREP 0370 and ENGL 1301. Course fee.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students successfully completing this course will be able to:

1. Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences, and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths.
2. Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.
3. Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.
4. Describe and apply insights gained from reading and writing a variety of texts.
5. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas, and use of appropriate language that advance the writer's purpose.
6. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.
7. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
8. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.
9. Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
10. Recognize and apply the conventions of Standard English in reading and writing.

7. Improvement and develop competence in use of basic grammar and mechanics.
8. Understanding of and improved use of rules of standard English usage, the use of standard paragraphing, use of title and standard college heading.
9. Ability to write a multi-paragraph essay with clear introduction, body, and conclusion.
10. Ability to read and respond critically to written texts, recognizing main ideas, supporting details, and purpose.

COURSE POLICIES

Policies will vary

STUDENT CONTRIBUTIONS AND CLASS POLICIES

1. Respect to others at all times and responsibility are expected.
2. Any behavior that disrupts the order of the classroom or lab will be reported to the Dean of Students for necessary action. Respect for yourself and your classmates and personal responsibility are the two guidelines.
3. No food or drink allowed in the classroom or lab. No cell phones, pagers, music devices (iPods/mp3s), electronic games or earbuds are allowed. No picture, voice, or video recording is allowed without the permission of the instructor. NO vulgar language or disrespectful behavior will be tolerated. The student may be removed for using these devices and/or being disrespectful, which can result in losing credit for the course.

4. Attendance Policy: Attendance is mandatory in this class and lab. The student will be responsible for regular, prompt attendance in the scheduled Integrated Reading/Writing course, and his/her grade will reflect any missed classes. The student must sign in before each class period and sign out if leaving class early. Also, the student is required to earn 16 hours over the course of the semester. Each lab evaluation requires 1 hour of attendance in the Language Hub, and the remainder of the time will be monitored from online activity. There are four evaluations per semester. Attendance is mandatory for the successful completion of this course. Attendance, as well as successful completion of lab assignments is a portion of the class grade. If the student is absent more than three times during the semester, he/she may fail the course.
5. Be on time and be prepared. Often the first ten minutes of class are the most important. Always bring textbook and necessary materials to class.
6. Late work: Late Work is not accepted, unless prior arrangements have been made by the student and the instructor. If late work is accepted, papers will drop a letter grade per class meeting.
7. If the student misses a class, he/she is responsible for contacting the instructor as soon as possible concerning the nature of the absence as well as to find out what had been missed in class and what is due for the next class.
8. Students are expected to check Canvas daily for assignments and instructions.
9. Withdrawal Policy: Students are responsible for their dropping of this class to avoid an F on their transcripts; the instructor will not drop a student.

MANUSCRIPT REGULATIONS:

All writing assignments submitted to the instructor must be typed in Word document using 12-point font, Times New Roman, double-spaced, with 1" margins all around. MLA style will be used for all references.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Plagiarism is defined as the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own written work offered for credit. A student commits plagiarism if he/she:

1. fails to acknowledge the sources of any information in a paper which is not either common knowledge or personal knowledge. A student can acknowledge a source through in-text citations, attribution lines, footnotes, or other forms of documentation approved by the instructor. (Common knowledge is the basic information within a field or discipline, as well as most historical dates and facts, and many ordinary observations.)

2. fails to acknowledge direct quotation either by using quotation marks or (for longer passages) indentation. Without the quotation marks or indentation, passages copied directly from a source might be considered plagiarized even if it is followed by an in-text citation or a footnote. The citation or footnote acknowledges that there is a source, but it does not indicate that the writer has borrowed someone else's exact words. If a writer uses the language of a source, word-for word, he/she must use quotation marks or block indentation.

3. merely paraphrases the original words of the source. Some students think they can avoid a charge of plagiarism by changing a few words in each sentence they copy or by rearranging the shape of phrases or the order of sentences in a paragraph. This is not true. When taking notes students must be careful to put ideas in their own words or to use direct quotations when relying on phrases directly borrowed from a source.

4. borrows the ideas, examples, or structure of the source without acknowledging it. A student can be guilty of plagiarism if he/she systematically borrows the ideas and organization of a source even if the language of the piece is on a major news event by using exactly the same ideas in the same order as they appear in an article in any popular news magazine.

5. takes, buys, or receives work created by someone else and presents it as the student's own.

6. uses one assignment/paper for two different courses, or re-uses a paper previously submitted for credit, without the prior approval of the instructor or instructors.

Penalties

If a student has any questions or doubts about the way he/she is employing sources or assistance in any given assignment, he/she is advised to consult the instructor before handing in the assignment. The penalties for any type of scholastic dishonesty described in this statement can be severe and can adversely affect the student's permanent academic record. The instructor has the primary responsibility for recommending the penalty in cases of academic dishonesty after consultation with the Division Dean and the student. Students may seek review of the decision or redress of a grievance related to their participation in college programs or activities. The instructor does have the right to enforce any one of the following penalties for scholastic dishonesty at his/her discretion and in response to each particular case:

1. Failure of the assignment;
2. Failure of the course;
3. Recommendation for disciplinary action, including institutional suspension or dismissal.

EVALUATION OF STUDENTS

CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

- Reading Assignments/Quizzes/Post-Test/Additional Activities (25%)
- Essays/Portfolio of Critical/Reflection Writing Assignments (25%)
- Lab Evaluations (25%)
- Final Exam (25%)
  - A = 90 – 100
  - B = 80 – 89
  - C = 70 – 79
  - F = 69 or below

The total number of potential percentages for all assignments equals 100%. The student must receive a C or higher in this course in order to become TSI complete.

*If the student chooses to take the TSI during the semester, and meets the requirements of the test, then the highest grade that can be received is a C for the course, unless the student has a higher grade than the C, then the student will receive a B for the class. The student needs to present the updated TSI scores to the instructor in order to adjust the grade.

LAB ASSIGNMENTS

1. 1 hour in attendance in the lab for each evaluation
2. Grammar assignments and quizzes
3. Two textbook readings and "Closer Look at" response submissions
4. Chapter quizzes on textbook chapters related to genres under study

LANGUAGE HUB

The Language Hub is available for students having questions or needing additional help with writing practices or grammar. The attendance and assignments for the lab evaluations are required to be completed in the Language Hub. The lab is open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Monday—Thursday and 7:30 a.m. to noon on Friday.

INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION AND RESPONSE TIME

Students are encouraged to contact the instructor at any time; however, making an appointment will guarantee the instructor's availability at a specific time. Students may communicate with me in person, by calling my office phone, scheduling an appointment, sending a Canvas/campus e-mail, or meeting me in the Language Hub. Response time to e-mails or graded assignments will vary depending on the situation.

(Policy regarding email and grading time will vary.)

ATTENDANCE IN IVC CLASSES

Early College High School and Dual Credit students must show themselves on camera at least once AND turn in that day's classtime tasks to be counted presented.

PROHIBITION OF AUDIO/VIDEO RECORDING OF INSTRUCTOR AND CLASS ACTIVITIES

Students may not make audio or visual recordings of any face-to-face or electronic class activities, including, for example, discussions, conferences, and lectures. The only exception is for students with a disability documented according to Midland College ADA Statement and Midland College-ordered accommodations specifically authorizing such recording.

DROP / WITHDRAWAL

The student is responsible for initiating a drop or withdrawal, not the instructor.

Withdrawal from course: The instructor is not able to withdraw a student from the course after the census date. A student wishing to withdraw must fill out the withdrawal form in MyMCPortal.
