Notice: Students MUST actively participate by completing an academic assignment required by the instructor by the official census date. Students who do not actively participate in an academically-related activity may be reported as never attended and dropped from the course.

Course Description:

The purpose of this course is to provide students with an introduction to human movement that includes the historical development of physical education, exercise science, and sport. This course offers the student both an introduction to the knowledge base, as well as, information on expanding career opportunities.

Prerequisite: TSI Complete in Reading experience.

Text, References, and Supplies:

- Textbook: Walton-Fisette, Foundations of Physical Education- connect access
 - ISBN: 9781260807721

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Distinguish between and identify terminology and research within the sub-disciplines in the field of Kinesiology and their application to diverse careers.
2. Summarize the historical and philosophical approaches to the physical activity, physical education, exercise science and sport
3. Identify the characteristics of a physical educated person and the importance of assessment and advocacy in physical education, exercise science, and sport.
4. Discuss how the changing nature of education and technological advances may influence physical education, exercise science, and sport in the future.

5. Identify major professional organizations, foundations, and associations supporting physical activity at local, state, national and international levels as well as data tools and resources.

Student Contributions, Responsibilities and Class Policies:

- Students will be expected to comply with the policies outlined in the Midland College Catalog. Instructor policies concerning attendance and academic behavior are consistent with the policies in the catalog. Regular attendance is required to do well in this class.
- Students will be evaluated based on the results of assignments and examinations given throughout the semester and the content of a portfolio. Your instructor will inform you on the first day of class as to the tentative dates and content for each exam and the expected content of the notebook.
- No late work will be accepted. Students are expected to complete each exam, quiz, lab assignment by the due date given by the instructor.

Attendance Policy:

It is the responsibility of the students to know the policies and procedures associated with absences. These policies are set by instructors. Excused absences may include, but are not limited to, illness, severe weather, and death in the family. Instructors will determine whether or not an absence is excused. Please visit the Midland College Catalog

Withdrawal Policy:

Students who have enrolled in a Texas public institution of higher education as a first-time freshman in fall 2007 or later are permitted to drop no more than six courses during the entire undergraduate career. This limit includes all transfer work taken at a Texas institution of higher education and to second baccalaureate degrees. This statute was enacted by the State of Texas in spring 2007 (Texas Education Code 51.907). Any course that a student drops after Census Day is counted toward the six-course limit if "(1) the student was able to drop the course without receiving a grade or incurring an academic penalty; (2) the student's transcript indicates or will indicate that the student was enrolled in the course; and (3) the student is not dropping the course in order to withdraw from the institution.” Please visit the Midland College Catalog

Scholastic Dishonesty:

Midland College does not tolerate scholastic dishonesty or academic misconduct in any form. Please read the Student Rights & Responsibilities section in the Midland College Catalog for more information.
