REQUIRED TEXTS AND MATERIALS

Practica Musica
Dannhäuser Sight Singing textbook, Volume 1.
Adobe Reader (Links to an external site)

COURSE POLICIES

A. Practica Musica: Students can work on the computer Ear-Training and Theory courses at home or in the Rea Center (124 AFA)
B. Section assignments: Students will be required to complete the assigned materials by the end of the semester
C. Materials lab: The Center for Music Technology and Creativity will be available outside of class hours so that students may work on their assignments on the computers. The instructor or a qualified lab assistant will be available for help with the computer programs and assignments.
D. Setting up a Practica Musica account:
(in order to meet the course participation requirement discussed above, students MUST set up a Practica Musica account and begin work on the course requirements listed in the course outline by the census date. Students also MUST meet with the instructor for their initial Dannhauser session before the census date. The dates are listed in the course outline, so follow that link to determine the required date for your first Dannhauser session.)

When the students launch Practica Musica for the first time, a dialog box will open with a few different options. To begin, they'll need to click on I don't have a student file yet; please create one and enter:
- Their first and last name
- A password (optional - not necessary to proceed)
- And their class WebStudents Account name - mcmus1

Hit OK. Their name will appear in the on screen menu and they can proceed with their assignments. A copy of their work will be saved to your Instructor's WebStudents Account for viewing.

EVALUATION OF STUDENTS

A. Attendance is extremely important to effective performance.
1. Students MUST meet with the instructor on a bi-weekly basis to discuss their progress and sing out from the Dannhauser text. The meetings can be conducted over Skype or Facetime if the student is not able to come to the office. Three consecutive unexcused absences, or a total of six unexcused absences during the semester will have a detrimental effect on the student's grade in the course. Students who are excessively absent from class should talk with the instructor about the reasons for their absence.
2. It is sometimes advisable for students who are excessively absent from class to withdraw from the course. When a student is excessively absent from class, he/she will receive a warning letter from the Dean of Students. The student must then talk with the instructor regarding his absence from class or withdraw from the course. IT IS THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO WITHDRAW FROM THE COURSE. Students with excessive unexcused absences who have not dropped the course will receive a failing grade for the term. This semester's withdrawal deadline is April 11.

B. Students are required to keep up with the assignments in basic music theory and ear training courses in order to complete everything by the end of the semester.

C. Bi-weekly Dannhauser sight-singing meetings will be held with the instructor. During the meeting, students will be required to sing simple melodies at sight.

D. The Practica Musica assignments are listed in the course outline, so follow that link to determine what the assignments are, then work on them at your computer or in the Rea Center. Students must successfully complete the assigned Practica Musica activities and the Dannhauser sight-singing activities in order to receive a passing grade for the semester. Grades will be assigned based on how far the student has progressed towards completing the assigned exercises as outlined below:

A: All assigned Practica Musica exercises (see the course outline for the assigned exercises) AND the assigned Dannhauser Sight Singing exercises in Book I
B: 80-90% of the assigned Practica Musica Exercises AND the Dannhauser Sight Singing exercises in Book I

C: 70--79% of the assigned Practica Musica Exercises AND the Dannhauser Sight Singing exercises in Book I

D: 60-69% of the assigned Practica Musica Exercises completed

F: Less than 60% of the Practica Musica exercises completed.

CLASS SCHEDULE

[Each instructor will provide a Class schedule. The schedule should include an outline of topics for the course - Which may be subject to change. There are sixteen weeks of instruction, including finals in long semesters - the length of summer and interim sessions vary]

INSTITUTIONAL ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

ADA Statement— The Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act require that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination by any program or activity provided by an institution or entity receiving federal financial assistance. It is this Section 504 mandate that has promoted the development of disability support service programs in colleges and universities across the country. Subpart E of Section 504 deals specifically with this mandate for institutions of higher education. While it does not require that special educational programming be developed for students with disabilities, it does require that an institution (public or private) be prepared to make appropriate academic adjustments and reasonable accommodations in order to allow the full participation of students with disabilities in the same programs and activities available to nondisabled students.

Midland College provides services for students with disabilities through Student Services. In order to receive accommodations, students must place documentation on file with the Counselor/Disability Specialist. Students with disabilities should notify Midland College prior to the beginning of each semester. Student Services will provide each student with a letter outlining any reasonable accommodations. The student must present the letter to the instructor at the beginning of the semester.
