

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

Ellen Boyd

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

M.A. English, UTPB, May 2010, 3.82 GPA

B.A. English, UTPB, Dec. 2005, Summa Cum Laude, 3.96 GPA

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

Legacy High School, Midland, TX, July 2017-present, English Dept. Chair, AP English Lit/GT/Dual British Lit I and II, and English IV teacher

AP Reader, College Board, June 2019- 2022

Midland High School, Midland, TX, July 2010-2017, APLang/AP Lit/GT/Dual Comp I and II, British Lit I and II, & ADV English III & IV teacher, NHS Adviser since 2012, First Priority Sponsor since 2015

Midland College, Midland, TX, July 2010-present, dual credit ENGL 1301, 1302, 2322 & 2323 teacher

UTPB Adjunct: Fall 2014-present: ENGL 1301, 1302, 2322 online

Midland College Adjunct: Fall 2013 ENGL 1301

Abell Jr. High School, Midland, TX, Jan. 2006-June 2010, 7th & 8th grade English teacher

Significant professional publications related to the teaching position, with a full citation for each:

"Oral History and Revenge in Annie Proulx's 'The Half Skinned Steer,'" Forum, Issue 13, Autumn 2011, University of Edinburgh.
www.forumjournal.org.

Licensure and Certification:

State of Texas Teaching Certificates:
8-12 English
ESL Supplemental

Professional Presentations and Conferences:

Abydos Publishing Teacher Conference recertification, 2011

Awards and Honors:

National Endowment for the Humanities grant recipient: Remaking Monsters and Heroines: Adapting Classic Literature for Contemporary Audiences, U. Arkansas, July 2018

National Endowment for the Humanities grant recipient, Scholarship and Performance: Teaching Shakespeare's Plays Institute, Brooklyn, NY, July 2017

Fund For Teachers Fellow 2016: Attended AP Summer Institute Oxford U. and culture study of Beowulf

Grants for Great Ideas recipient, Midland Education Foundation, 2008 and 2018