

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name: David T. Crum

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

Doctor of Philosophy - Historical Theology - University of the Free State
Master of Arts - History - Wayland Baptist University
Master of Arts - Theological Studies - Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary
Bachelor of Science - Bible - Tennessee Temple University

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

Midland College
Adjunct History Instructor
January 2023 to Present
August 2014 to May 2021

Truett-McConnell University
Assistant Professor of History
January 2018 to Present

Hutchinson Community College
Philosophy Instructor
August 2013 to December 2022

Significant professional publications related to the teaching position, with a full citation for each:

- George Truett in WWI. Baptist History & Heritage, Vol. LVI, No. 5 (Fall 2023).
- Local Church Autonomy and the Role of Associations Defined by America's First Baptist Assembly. The Journal of Florida Baptist Heritage, Volume 25, No. 1 (Fall 2023).
- Examining Patrick Henry's Christian Worldview and Beliefs on a Christian Government. Christus Cultura, Volume 5, No. 1 (Spring 2023).
- The Fifer in the American Revolution. Journal of America's Military Past, Volume XLVII, No. 3 (Fall 2022).

- The Southern Baptist Convention and World War II. Journal for Baptist Theology and Ministry, Volume 19, No. 1 (Spring 2022).
- A Study of J. Frank Norris: His Teachings Before and During WWII. Christus Cultura, Volume 4, No. 1 (Spring 2022).

Licensure and Certification:

- Leadership Plan Series ▪ Midland College (CEU) 2016
- Curriculum Assessment ▪ Midland College (CEU) 2016
- Improving Your Online Course ▪ Quality Matters 2015

Professional Associations:

- Council on America's Military Past
- Scottish Reformation Society
- Florida Baptist Historical Society
- Baptist History & Heritage Society