

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

Daniela Espinoza

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

MA in Clinical Psychology, University of Texas-Permian Basin

BA in Psychology, University of Texas-Permian Basin

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

I have been with Midland College as an Adjunct Instructor for DAAC and the Clinical Director for the Midland College Behavioral Health Center (MCBHC) from Fall 2015 till present.

Licensure and Certification:

I am an LPC, LSOTP, and LCDC. I also hold certifications in brain health, trauma, and integrative health.

Professional Associations:

I am a professional member of the American Counseling Association, American Mental Health Counselors Association, and NAADAC.