Name:

Julie Higginbotham

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

University of Texas at San Antonio, Masters in Art, Art History

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

August 2008 – Present

Grayson County College

Denison, Texas

Adjunct Instructor for Art Appreciation

Online Format: Student Capacity 85

Responsibilities include planning and delivering lectures, posting weekly reading and writing assignments in accordance with the textbook material, facilitating and participating in a discussion board with students, creating and administering exams, grading assignments, and maintaining communication with students.

August 2004 – Present

Midland College

Midland, Texas

Odessa, Texas

Adjunct Instructor for Art Appreciation and Art History Survey I and II

Classroom and online formats: Student capacity 100

Responsibilities include planning and delivering lectures, posting weekly reading and writing assignments in accordance with the textbook material, facilitating and participating in a discussion board with students, creating and administering exams, grading assignments, and maintaining communication with students.

August 2004 – December 2007 University of Texas of the Permian Basin

Adjunct Instructor for Art History Survey I and II

Classroom and online formats: Student capacity 40

Responsibilities included planning and delivering lectures, posting weekly reading and writing assignments in accordance with the textbook material, facilitating and participating in a discussion board with students, creating and administering exams, grading assignments, planning and escorting students on museum trips, and maintaining communication with students.

Significant professional publications related to the teaching position, with a full citation for each: