

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

Damon Kennedy

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

BA The University of Texas of the Permian Basin, 1996

MA The University of Texas of the Permian Basin, 1998

PHD Texas Tech University, 2006

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

White-Pool House Museum, Odessa, Texas - Directory, 1996-1998

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin, Odessa, Texas - Assistant Archivist, 1996-1998

Texas Tech University, Southwest Collection, Lubbock, Texas - Research Assistant, 1998-1999

Texas University, Lubbock, Texas - Graduate Instructor of History, 1999-2003

Petroleum Museum, Midland, Texas - Archivist, 2003-2004

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin, Odessa, Texas - Adjunct Instructor of History, 2003-2004

Midland College, Midland, Texas - Adjunct Instructor of History, 2003 - 2006

Midland College, Midland, Texas - Professor of History, 2006 to present

Significant professional publications related to the teaching position, with a full citation for each:

MA Thesis: John Ben Shepperd and the Celebration of Texas Public History, 1998

6666: The Four Sixes. (National Ranching Heritage Center, Lubbock, Texas) 2003.

Doctoral Dissertation: Samuel Burk Burnett and the 6666 Ranch, 2006

Midland: Window to the West. (Lammert Historical Publishing Network, San Antonio, Texas) 2011.

Numerous Article and Book Reviews.