

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

Andrew S. Latham

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

2019: The University of Texas at Arlington, Doctor of Philosophy in English

2012: The University of Texas at Tyler, Master's of English

2010: Texas State University, San Marcos, Bachelor's of Arts in English

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

2017 - Present: Midland College, Assistant Professor of English

2015 - 2017: Tarrant County College District, Instructor of English

2012 - 2015: Tarrant County College District, Adjunct Instructor of English

2011: The University of Texas at Tyler, Supplemental Instructor, Biology

2010 - 2011: Tyler Independent School District, Substitute Teacher

Significant professional publications related to the teaching profession, with a full citation for each:

1. Latham, Andrew S. "I Gamer: Addressing Toxic Ludology and Narratology in the Game Discourse Community Through Reinterpreting Video Games as Hypertexts." 2019. The University of Texas at Arlington, PhD dissertation.
2. Forthcoming (2023-24): Latham, Andrew S. Hey, Listen! Hypertext Rhetoric and the Legend of Zelda. McFarland & Company, Inc.

Professional Presentations and Conferences:

1. Latham, Andrew S. "The Girdle and the Bottle: Exploring Ludoludo Harmony in Sir Gawain and Ocarina of Time." The Middle Ages in Modern Gaming Twitter Conference, 9 June 2022, <https://twitter.com/LathamPhD/status/1534973734045503521>.
2. Latham, Andrew S. "A History of Gamergate: Key Moments in the Gamer Discourse Community." NTX Gaming Symposium, 23 Feb. 2022, <https://sites.google.com/my.tccd.edu/ntxgaming>. Keynote Speaker.
3. Latham, Andrew S. "Blind Runs: Exploring Ludoludo Harmony and Dissonance in the Audiovisual Rhetoric of The Legend of Zelda: Ocarina of Time." The River Speaks, Tarrant County College District, Fort Worth, TX, March 2021.