

Midland College Faculty Vitae

Name:

Dr. Mary M. Williams

Names of all higher education institutions attended, with degrees earned:

Texas Tech University, Ph.D., English

University of Texas of the Permian Basin MA, English

Texas Tech University, BA, Journalism

All previous teaching positions, including the names of the institutions, the position, and beginning and ending dates of employment:

Lubbock Christian University, Adjunct Faculty, Fall 1998 - Spring 1999, Summer 2001.

Texas Tech University, Part-Time Graduate Instructor, Fall 1996 - Spring 2001.

University of Texas of the Permian Basin, Teaching Assistant, Fall 1994 - Spring 1996.

Licensure and Certification:

3 hours GCH, Univ. Colorado at Pueblo, through Learners Edge, "Teaching Students with Disabilities" (Summer 2019).

Professional Presentations and Conferences:

October 14, 2021: "Relevance: Connecting Courses to Students' Lives" webinar, Norton Publishing

Professional Associations:

Modern Language Association

National Council of Teachers of English

Conference of College Teachers of English
Teaching English in the Two-Year College
Texas Community College Teachers Association