CHECK IT OUT. Welcome to a new era in libraries and specifically, learning resource centers.

We now allow snack and finger foods, along with drinks covered with a secure lid. No banquet meals, please.

---

Spring Hours

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Days</th>
<th>Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>M-Th</td>
<td>7:45a-10p</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>7:45a-5p</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sat</td>
<td>Closed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sun</td>
<td>3p-8p</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Faculty and students- if you require Interlibrary Loan service for books or articles, be sure to visit our online form:

https://midland.edu/services-resources/library/interlibrary-loan-form.php

---

JOIN US THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020 AT 6PM, 1ST FL ATRIUM – YOU'RE INVITED TO A SPECIAL LECTURE AND VALENTINE’S DAY CHOCOLATE CELEBRATION FEATURING DR. LINDA THORSEN BOND “FINDING THE TURNING POINT” – HER LECTURE WILL ADDRESS THE TURNING POINTS THAT CHANGE THE COURSE OF HISTORY FOR A PERSON OR A PLACE.

A prolific author, Linda has written and produced 20 historical plays, including The Wedding of Sarah Brown Dorsey at Midland’s Brown-Dorsey House; The 1907 Wild West Show at the Scarborough Lineberry House in Midland and Roses for Santa Rita at the Petroleum Museum. The televised documentary Hot Time in the Old Town, based on her historical play in Colorado, won two national 2018 Telly Awards.

Her 2019 historical novel, Saving the Oldest Town in Texas, published by SFA Press books, is about the scoundrel mayor who robbed his town’s own bank in 1903 and left his wife, his children and mansion behind in Nagodoches, Texas. She will discuss the turning point for this mayor & the town he abandoned, her novel approach to history and her favorite phrase, ‘based on a true story.’

Bond formerly was an Assistant Professor of Communication at Stephen F. Austin University. She earned her Ph.D. in Educational Administration and Human Resource Development from Texas A&M University.

For more, visit lindathorsenbond.com
Midland College is proud to host an exhibit provided by the Smithsonian Institution in conjunction with the United State World War One Centennial Commission. The WW1: Lessons And Legacies exhibit will explore the war and its lasting impact and far-reaching influence on American life. Please join us for the remaining series of lectures scheduled throughout mid-March delving more in-depth into pertinent topics.

Friday, February 14 at Noon
Art, Music and Poetry

Wednesday, February 19 at Noon
Black/African Caribbeans and Africans of the Commonwealth

Tuesday, February 25 at Noon
Over Here: Internal U.S. Immigration & Across The Atlantic

Wednesday, March 4 at Noon
Women In The War

Tuesday, March 17 at Noon
Tracing Ancestry to WW1

Thursday, March 19 at Noon
Legacies of WW1

---

RESEARCH LIKE A BOSS --- IS BACK!

Tues., April 7 & Wed., April 8 (spring session)

1pm, Language Hub TC Rm. 182

How to find credible sources, evaluate if they are factual, navigate scholarly databases, MLA documentation. Register today by calling 432-685-4718, or in person at the Language Hub. Limited to 30 participants.

---

STAFF ROSTER

Brianna Barnard – Automation/Technical Services Librarian

Linda Hancock – Reference Librarian (p/t)

Jennifer Harris – Public Services Librarian

Vacant – Clerk/Student Liaison

Josh Knight – Secretary

Howard Marks – Director, Learning Resource Center

Charlotte Sweatt – Technical Services Specialist

Eric Wheeler – Electronic Resources Librarian

Marcus McKiddy – General Purpose Computer Lab Monitor

Maria Vargas – General Purpose Computer Lab Monitor

Koray Erdogan – General Purpose Computer Lab Monitor

Vacant – General Purpose Computer Lab Monitor Workstudy

---

https://www.midland.edu/library/  For any inquiries, e-mail us: library@midland.edu